October 2020 Annual Christmas Letter

I have been writing this annual Christmas letter for very many years to provide you my customer with helpful Christmas information and a commentary on the current year.

It is a complete understatement to say that this is a year like no other and at the time of writing, no end to the Covid-19 problem is in sight. On the positive, we have been able to maintain trading, and open, with slight adjustment i.e. closing at 1pm on Wednesday as well as Monday and closing at 4pm on other days. This allows us more production time and to prepare orders for the extra home deliveries.

The acquisition of the adjoining unit 3 years ago has really proved its worth during this period as it has meant that we are able to deliver a wide range of perishable food as well as meat and meat products.

On the subject of deliveries, we will use 3 vans this Christmas which will significantly improve the number of orders that we can deliver. This will help reduce queueing in the shop as we do not know what government rules will apply in December but be reassured, we will continue to do everything we can to keep both customers and staff safe. Our spacing, numbers in shop, and the sanitising point have all worked very well to date.

We are pleased to say that trading is very good and against that background, together with a "rates free year" and a generous donation from a friend and former resident, we have been able to assist many who needed help in these difficult times by giving meat and all the trimmings sufficient to provide over 1,600 meals. Some of the many thank you cards brought a tear to the eye. We would like to thank the various local community groups who helped with the distribution of the packages.

We will get through this terrible time and with an eye to the future we took on an apprentice in September under the auspices of a government approved scheme.

Some staffing difficulties have occurred in the supply chain, nothing we have not coped with, and most importantly, standards and quality remain high. Once again we are offering the finest "well hung" Beef, excellent Pork, Lamb and Poultry, and everything else to complete your Christmas eating pleasure.

Let's face it, there are so many restrictions in life at the moment, but immediate household "feasting" is not one, so let us make the most of Christmas.

An order form is enclosed, if it gets misplaced you can go online and print another. Please note the order deadline is 12th December, but the sooner we receive the better! It does help us a lot.

So once again we thank you for your support, it is our pleasure and mission to look after you.

Have a great Christmas! We hope that 2021 gives us all back some normality.

Yours sincerely,
